Subject: Plea of merciful consideration to Judge L J Liman

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Most honorable Judge Liman,

I wish you and your family most well wishes.

As well, i beg for your mercy, consideration and a moment of your time.

Thank you.

A marshall with orders to evict, is scheduled to be at my door, my home of 30 years, tomorrow morning at 9 am. I have been told, you alone have the power to put at least a temporary halt to this. Perhaps at least grant me a little time.

I asked a quite wealthy friend for help some years ago when my apartment, which i had been renting for 15 years, needed to be sold. It intrigued her as a good investment and she most generously became involved, on her own terms. Since this joint venture she chose to relocate to live and work Germany. Then, with the demise of her first marriage, decided she wanted me to leave.

Guised as generosity, she did not accept money from me, nor kept in touch, nor provided me with any invoices or a place to send her monthly payments.

Instead, communication began and has continued arriving as legal threats. These terrified me so much so that i never opened any.

Regret this inaction so very much now in hindsight.

At last when the fright level was nearly unbearable i reached out to my church.

My church introduced me to a truly caring, diligent lawyer, Steven Kent, who has been indeed a Godsend.

Unfortunately I was too terrified of Laura Langord's clout and determination not to allow me voice, that I waited until the dye had been cast and set into quicksand before reaching out for help.

Though the clock is now ticking with absurd volume,

I implore you to reconsider and grant me at least brief mercy, at most a chance to be heard.

Thank you and good night to you,
